Travel Ambassadors meeting

The WOW badges were counted and distributed.

We talked about the homework we are setting which is being given out on Friday. We are also holding an assembly on Friday to talk about the work. Everyone at the meeting agreed that they would take part. We will meet again tomorrow (Thursday 7 Jan) to have a practice.

We talked about what the prize would be for the most effort – I showed them the box of previous WOW badges, they thought they would be good prizes!

Next meeting 3 February 2016
